

Gallery for Contemporary Art, Leipzig

project:	new construction of an exhibition hall
location:	Leipzig
services of SMV:	project management
client:	Gallery for Contemporary Art, Leipzig
architects:	AS-IF Architekten, Berlin
building costs:	ca. 1,8 Mio. EUR
duration:	2003-2004
responsible:	Dipl.-Ing. (FH) Architekt Bernd Hullmann

project description: For the Gallery of Contemporary Art in Leipzig was an exhibition hall of 1108 m² built. This building completes the ensemble of existing museum and adjoining buildings in the "music quarter" in Leipzig. The concept for the architecture is the variability in spatial order and temporary use.

Project objectives/ Benefits for the client The highly demanding project could be realised in extremely scanty time precisely in the cost frame restricted by the fundings. After five years the quality of the construction and durability of the building and the used materials, which have experimental characteristics, is higher than expected.

object features:
building plot:	2 830 m ²
gross floor area:	1 108 m ²
gross building volume:	4 440 m ³

