

LSG Sky Chefs Deutschland GmbH

picture: LSG Sky Chefs Deutschland GmbH; G & O; OFB Projektentwicklung GmbH

project:	new construction of catering production facility in Frankfurt project location:	Frankfurt Airport City, Germany
services SMV:	scheduling, schedule controlling client:	Gateway Gardens Erste GmbH & Co. KG
architects:	Neumann + Partner
building costs:	confidential
duration:	2006 - 2008
responsible:	Dipl.-Ing. (FH) Christian Wernicke
project description:	At Gateway Gardens, the new Airport city in Frankfurt, a new construction of catering production facility will be erect in cooperation with Groß & Partner Grundstücksentwicklungsgesellschaft mbH und OFB Projektentwicklung GmbH until Mai 2008. It concerns the biggest production in Europe for Airline Catering and Food service. At the highest technical level and with the highest standards of quality it will be produced in high quantity in three-shift operation. The building for the new catering production facility encloses a surface gross base of about 44.400 m ² . About 2.400 employees produce approx. 77.000 meals primarily for airlines of the Lufthansa group.
project objectives:	Purpose position of the principal was, primarily, the observance of the appointments for the determined date for starting catering production by the LSG Sky Chef Deutschland GmbH.
benefits for the client:	We succeed with early identification of critical time delays for significant interim and final deadlines as well as application of according measures.
object features
Gross floor area:	44.400 m ²
Production (daily):	2.400 employees, 77.000 meals delivery with approx. 1.000 roll lifting cart-trips